Today's market could be described as having a mixed day. Mid-micron wools continued it's crusade with some positive increases especially in the 24 micron wools ~ lifting by 35 cent and overall most mid-micron wools increasing from our last South Island sale. Full length XBD wool prices were on par to our last sale.

We did see some fluctuations in the 2/S fleece prices today with 2-4" and shorter wools trending downwards. Oddments are still attracting top dollar.

Next Sale is in the South Island on the 11th Sept 2025 with 6,500 bales rostered.
