A strong sale again ~ with the market tracking dearer than the last South Island sale. Currency appears to have played a role in supporting today's prices ~ helping prices firm overall. Fine crossbreds with length continue to be well sought after. China remains the dominant force in the market with Europe and India remain largely on the sidelines.

Merino wool remain strong aligned with the Australian market ~ trading at higher levels.

The next sale kicks off with our first National Sale to be held in Christchurch on the 22nd October. ~ With 10,900 bales rostered...
